The Dargo High Plains Rally

2nd weekend in September

On the 2nd weekend in September the "High Plains Rally" will be held at Talbotville, approx. 32 km. from Dargo, in the North Eastern Highlands of Victoria. Talbotville was a thriving gold rush town in the 1860's and is now unpopulated. The 17km road between Dargo and the Grant Road turn off is bitumen whilst the 15km track from there on to Talbotville is variable dirt and, whilst offering spectacular views, is not recommended for the novice rider.

Trophies available: Longest Distance Male and Female. Oldest bike and rider (combined age)
Youngest bike and rider (combined age) The hard luck award

Facilities available: Fresh Running water. Limited firewood provided. Petrol food and drinks available at Dargo.
NO CATERING available at the rally site. We request that all visitors carry out their own rubbish. The toilets on site must be used. Use only the firewood supplied.
